50% deposit payable on booking, and balance due 4 weeks before event date. This offer cannot be combined with any other promotions or discounts

3 hour Creative Workshop Overview

Participants will learn how to upholster their own unique and eco-friendly notice board which can be used as vision or display board. Theirs to take home at the end of the day. Perfect for reward and recognition activity or team bonding.

It truly is a 'feel good day' where attendees will leave re-energised, feeling proud with a huge sense of achievement.

Includes afternoon tea, and hot and cold drinks.

Testimonials

“The Sinclair Law Solicitors team traded legal briefs for fabric shears and spent a few hours together on a sustainable upholstery team building course. A rare opportunity for the team to unite.

Semper Hopkins Upholstery & Interiors transformed their old chapel into our creative courtroom, where we crafted gorgeous notice boards that are now evidence of our hidden talents.

Who knew our team of legal eagles could be so creative?

We bonded over our staple gun fear, pondered fabric colours and shared button dilemmas as we crafted our noticeboards. Amid a beautifully presented and delicious lunch, we shared lots of smiles and laughter, embracing the chance to step out of our legal comfort zones.

This creative recess left us all feeling energised and motivated, reinforcing our positive working relationships and friendships. Case closed

A brilliant day of creativity and teamwork!

A heartfelt thank you to Emma & team for hosting this unforgettable workshop!”

Lucy Hart - Director Sinclair Law Solicitors

Testimonials

“I highly recommend Emma's upholstery team building courses. They are a fantastic way for teams to connect and learn about each other, whilst also learning new skills and creating something special to take away. Upholstery is very mindful so the workshop is very relaxing and the chapel space that Emma works from has such a "get away from it all" feel. I doubt anyone would regret having taken part.”

Gill Fox - The Nantwich Clinic Ltd

“Emma is an outstanding provider of high quality workshops tailored to the development of your teams mental health & individual needs. In a wonderful old atmospheric building she carefully guides everyone into creative construction. Highly recommended if you or your team wish to breath, connect and engage in a fantastic team event.”

Keith Simpson - Director at Kestrel Education Consultancy LTD
